LATEST PUBLICATIONS OF THEO. PRESSER, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

2776. Sartorio, A. Op. 299, No. 7. Dreams of Youth. Grade II..... 20

A pleasing little piece in polka-mazurka rhythm, and furnishes useful drill in the simple forms of technic. It is well suited for use as a piece in a regular course of instruction.

2777. Gautier, Leonard. Alcazar (Intermezzo). Grade III..... 40

A good piece by the composer of the popular "Le Secret," that will be found equally interesting and delightful. A rich melody for the left hand adds attractiveness.

2778. MacClymont, W. E. Op. 11, No. 1. Sunflower Dance. Grade II..... 40

A bright, sparkling piece that is well named. It contains some very excellent fingerwork. It is sure to be a favorite in the home circle.

2779. Dewey, Ferdinand. American Folk Melody in A. Four Hands. Grade III..... 60

A splendid piece, most attractive in melody and musicianly in construction. It will be found especially useful in recitals of American compositions.

2780. Vannah, Kate. My Bairnie. Song for Medium Voice. Grade III..... 30

A good song for parlor or recital use. It is in Scotch dialect.

2781–2783. Schmoll, A. Studies and Study Pieces. Grades III and IV. Three books, each..... 1 00

This is one of finest educational series for use in the earlier grades of piano instruction that can be found in the market. The pieces have been carefully edited by Mr. E. R. Kroeger and thoroughly prepared for teachers' use. Each book contains a number of technical studies, melodious and interesting, in alternation with pieces which embody some useful points.

2784. Ferber, Richard. In the Hammock. Grade I..... 25

A little piece in a rocking rhythm, which makes it a true "swing song." Very useful as a "study piece" for young pupils.

2785. Ferber, Richard. With the Caravan. Grade I..... 25

Somewhat Oriental in character as suggested by the title. It is very attractive in melody and rhythm. Contains practice in changing fingers on repeated notes.

2786. Schytte, Ludwig. Ghosts. Grade V, 20

A splendid study in the modern descriptive style, the principal technical feature being the rapid alternation of the hands in melodic passages.

2787. Bach, J. S. Gavotte in G Minor. Grade III..... 20

A teaching classic, one of the best-known of Bach's easier pieces. It is very useful in introducing a student to Bach's style.

2788. Chopin, F. Op. 18. Grande Valse Brillante in E flat. Grade VI..... 70

One of the most popular of Chopin's waltzes, especially for recital and concert purposes. This edition has been carefully fingered and phrased according to the playing of the best artists, and will be found a very good teaching edition.

2789. Schneider, Erwin. Zuleika. Rhapsodie de Salon. Grade IV..... 60

A useful and at the same time thoroughly attractive concert number, not very difficult, but in a style well adapted to suit the popular taste. It has the form and virtuosic qualities of the larger rhapsodies in smaller proportion, making a piece that is sure to interest both player and hearer.

2790. Schneider, Erwin. The Merry Flute Player. Mazurka de Salon. Grade III..... 50

A bright, sparkling piece, with plenty of life in it and melodic figures characteristic of flute music. It is carefully fingered and phrased, and we can recommend it for teaching purposes.

2791. Lewis, Charles L. My Own, With You. Song for Medium Voice. Grade II..... 30

A melodious, taking song of the so-called ballad type, in the popular waltz rhythm, especially suited for use in the social circle.

2792. Schneider, Erwin. Love's Dream at the Spinning Wheel. Grade IV, 60

Useful both for musical and technical ends. It has two distinct movements; the first representing the whirl of the wheel, and the second the dream,—a tender, sweet passage broken off by the running of the wheel again. It is sure to be a favorite.

2793. Chaminade, C. Op. 27, No. 2. Zingara. Grade VII..... 75

A fine concert piece by a popular composer. As the title indicates, the character of the music is gypsy; it is full of piquant, rhythmic, and melodic effects and rich in harmonic and dynamic contrast.

2794. Lange, G. Op. 78. Tanzlied. Grade II..... 30

An easy little waltz, pleasing in melody. It has some very useful passage work.

2795. Saroni, H. S. Lisinka Mazurka. Grade III..... 40

A brilliant salon composition in attractive rhythm. It will be found useful in recitals.

2796. Schoebel, O. M. On the Plaza. Grade III..... 40

A fine march, vigorous in rhythm; attractive in melody and with but few octaves. The trio introduces some melodic work for the left hand.

2797. Presser, Theodore. Scales, Arpeggios, and Cadences...... 35

This will fill a great need for a simple, compact, well-edited set of scales and arpeggios. They are carefully and fully fingered.

2798. Zitterbart, Fidelis. Sleigh-bell Polka. Four Hands. Grade II..... 60

A rollicking, gay spirit pervades the piece; fine melody and sparkling rhythm. Just the piece to open a recital or entertainment.

2799. Tours, Berthold. By the Brookside. Grade IV..... 35

A good study for facile finger technic, and at the same time an interesting, attractive piece, just the thing to give pupils who want pieces and who need technical drill.

2800. Merkel, G. Op. 82, No. 1. In the Green Meadow. Grade III..... 30

A pretty little piece, semi-pastoral in character. It is very well adapted for instruction; has been carefully edited.

2801. Schmitt, J. Op. 248, No. 3. Sonatina in C Major. Grade II..... 30

This is a very useful sonatina for pupils in the lower grades. It is melodious, clear in form and very thoroughly edited. It has two movements.

2802. Schmoll, A. Op. 61. Sonatina in C Major. Grade II..... 35

A good sonatina for use as an introduction into the higher forms of pianoforte music. There is not a dry measure in the piece.

2803. Schmoll, A. Op. 63. Children's Round Dance. Grade II..... 30

A splendid piece to interest young pupils, and a fine study in phrasing.

2804. Behr, F. Bolero. Grade II..... 20

A melodious, attractive piece in a popular rhythm. Both hands receive attention.

2805. Schmitt, J. Op. 249, No. 1. Sonatina. Grade III..... 30

A gem of melody. Divided into the usual three movements of the sonata.

2806. Lichner, H. Op. 78, No. 4. The First Ball. Grade II..... 30

Instructive and melodious little rondo movement. The delight of young students.

2807. Schmoll, A. Op. 65. Sonatina. Grade III..... 35

Quite Mozartian in character and in the manner of introducing the pretty effects.

2808. Vogel, M. Op. 40, No. 1. Sonatina. Grade III..... 50

Particularly interesting from the ingenuity displayed in weaving the melodies from Weber's opera "Freischütz."

2809. Enckhausen, H. Op. 76, No. 1. Sonatina. Grade III..... 40

Favorite with pupils and teachers on account of its many attractive features.

2810. Lichner, H. Op. 297, No. 6. Sonatina. Grade III..... 60

The military character of the opening movement never fails to enlist the attention of the player.

2811. Diabelli, A. Op. 168, No. 5. Sonatina. Grade III..... 40

Excellent and revised edition of this melodious and standard favorite.

2812. Förster, A. Op. 42, No. 2. Sonatina. Grade III..... 50

The contrasts of touch and phrasing render this a work of considerable worth and interest.

2813. Biehl, A. Op. 53, No. 10. Hurrah for the Uhlans. Grade III..... 20

Splendid study for light wrist-touch in both hands. Spirited subject.

2814. Schmoll, A. From Op. 68. The Return. Grade III..... 20

Pretty Polacca movement of interest and value.

2815. Wolff, B. Op. 124, No. 4. In Olden Times. Grade II..... 15

Quaintly pretty minuet, affording nice study of touch.

2816. Sorrentino, Eugenio. Willow Grove March. Four Hands. Grade III... 75

A fine arrangement of the march popularized by the celebrated Banda Rossa. It is made from the band score and is full, very brilliant, and yet not difficult.

2817. Lebierre, Oliver. Op. 102. The First Violet. Grade II..... 30

A fine composition of easy demands upon the technic of the pupil, and suitable for piano or reed organ. It is in waltz time and very melodious.

2818. Pasternack, Joseph. Op. 16, No. 2. Shoumka. Danse Ukraine. Grade III..... 40

A transcription of a Cossack folk-song that is very attractive to those who seek pure melody.

2819. Martini, Hugo. Op. 59. Chatterbox. Grade II..... 30

A piece for the younger pupils, bright in character and pleasing in melody.

2820–2825. Engelmann, H. Op. 372. My First Repertoire. Grade II.

2820. Lost in Thought. Reverie, 25

2821. In Silent Night. Nocturne, 30

2822. A Happy Return. Hunting Song...... 30

2823. Cradle Song...... 30

2824. Restless. Tarantella...... 30

2825. To the Dance. Polonaise. 30

A fine set of easy teaching pieces with good, picturesque titles, especially valuable in stimulating a feeling for expression.

2826. Draa, Charles C. Op. 11, No. 2. Springtime. Grade IV..... 50

In a semi-pastoral style, full of melody and grace. It is well prepared for teachers' use, carefully fingered and phrased.

2827. Lack, Theodore. Op. 92. Song of the Brook. Grade V..... 50

A very useful teaching piece. The leading technical feature is arpeggios divided between two hands, accompanying a charming melody.

2828. Engelmann, H. Op. 376. By Request. Grade III..... 50

A bright march in the popular two-step rhythm. It is not difficult and full of melody from beginning to end.

2829. Eilenberg, Richard. Op. 127. In the Ziller Vale. Grade III..... 40

In the fascinating Tyrolese or ländler movement. Contains some good practice in staccato chords.

2830. Bendel, G. Op. 108. Dream and Awakening. Grade III..... 40

A beautiful little piece that tells a story as indicated by the title. The music is wonderfully attractive to young pupils. Carefully edited.

2831. Dewey, Ferdinand. Evolutionary Piano Technic. Grades II–IV..... 90

A series of daily exercises, designed for the logical and more equal development of the hand in piano playing. A set of most valuable studies.

2832. Dewey, Ferdinand. A Ride in the Razzle Dazzle. Four Hands. Grade II..... 60

A most interesting piece to the young pupil, both from the musical and descriptive standpoints. It has a little poem with it to describe the ride.

2833. Schütt, Edward. Op. 25, No. 8. Morceau en Forme de Valse. Grade IV..... 30

A delightful piece for teaching or recital use, very carefully and thoroughly edited by Robert Goldbeck.

2834. Zimmermann, J. F. Flower Song. Grade II..... 40

A graceful little melody with an accompaniment partly of broken chords and partly repeated chords. It is useful as a teaching piece as well as interesting as music.

2835. Westerhout, Niccolo van. Ronde d'Amour. Grade III..... 35

A fine piece of modern music; interesting in every measure. It will be found a valuable study in bringing out a melody in the inner parts.

2836. Troyer, Carlos. Caprice Celeste. Grade III..... 40

Of the salon or drawing-room type of piece, in a piquant mazurka rhythm. It is brilliant and helpful for technical purposes.

2837. Lack, Theodore. Op. 147. Song of April. Grade IV..... 35

A fine "study piece," carefully edited with that end in view. The technical feature is a melody accompanied by an arpeggio in triplets in the same hand.

2838. Concone, J. From Op. 33. Waltz in Octaves. Grade III..... 35

A fine piece for octave study; can be played either legato or staccato. Both hands get drill.

LATEST PUBLICATIONS OF THEO. PRESSER, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Of the salon or drawing-room type of piece, in a piquant mazurka rhythm. It is brilliant and helpful for technical purposes.

2837. Lack, Theodore. Op. 147. Song of April. Grade IV..... 35

A fine "study piece," carefully edited with that end in view. The technical feature is a melody accompanied by an arpeggio in triplets in the same hand.

2838. Concone, J. From Op. 33. Waltz in Octaves. Grade III..... 35

A fine piece for octave study; can be played either legato or staccato. Both hands get drill.
